Investigation

On Monday, February 14, 2022, at approximately 7:56 am, a citizen responded to the Greendale Police Department to report what they thought were gun shots that had occurred sometime overnight.

Upon investigation, Officers learned that multiple gun shots had been fired at around 1:00 am in the 5400 block of South 51st Street. It appears the shots were directed at a specific residence. No one was injured.

We believe this is an isolated incident and there is no threat to the public at this time.

The Greendale Police Department is actively investigating this incident.

If you have any information or video footage pertaining to this investigation, please contact the Greendale Police Department at (414) 423-2121, reference case #22-1850.
